Design Concept: The Heights Exhibit

Introducing the bold new design for The Gallery, a motel located in The Heights neighborhood of Houston, TX. The design will exhibit Houston's love for the Fine Arts by drawing inspiration from French painter, Robert Delaunay. Delaunay's bold use of color and geometric shapes will give the outdated motel the revitalization it deserves. In the Heights, we see a pleasant mix of old and new. Victorian homes line Heights Boulevard while modern additions such as the Heights Mercantile shopping mall give a new flair to the neighborhood. The design of The Gallery will reflect the ever-changing neighborhood by respecting the existing architecture of The Admiral and revitalizing the exterior to keep the traditional heart of the Heights alive. A modern contemporary interior will help The Gallery keep up with the modern times as well as honor one of the city's core values: art.
